

Sunday, November 23, 2014, 2:46 AM

Chefs get creative with Thanksgiving dishes

Gobble up Pumpkin Spice Tuna Tataki and Thanksgiving Ramen during this holiday season.

Thanksgiving dinner doesn't have to mean the same old meat and potatoes. Spice up the holiday with offbeat treats like Turkey Mousse Pie or Pumpkin Spice Tuna Tataki — just a couple of the untraditional Turkey Day specials available in New York. Here's where to gobble them up.

Broccoli with Cheetos, $10 (Park Avenue Autumn, 260 Park Ave. S, parkavenyc.com)

A spoonful of Cheetos will help the broccoli go down. A trademark dish at this recently relocated restaurant boasts broccoli coated in a cheese sauce of Parmesan, aged gouda and gruyere and then topped with chili threads and crunchy Cheetos, adding a dash of camp to a refined restaurant that looks like a Pottery Barn autumnal dreamscape.