

Our 10 Best

The 10 Best Winter Cocktails in NYC

By Brad Japhe Thu., Dec. 18 2014 at 10:08 AM

Categories: Our 10 Best

Why should Champagne have all the fun? When it's time to get festive, folks always want to reach for the bubbly. But beware: Projectile corks kill up to two dozen people a year. This year you owe it to yourself (and the ones you hold dear) to embrace the holiday spirit with a non-pop-topped tippie. Safety first, after all. Besides, this is the era of inventive cocktails. Check out our list of the 10 best winter cocktails in NYC right now, each worth savoring during this celebratory season, or warming up with once the holiday glow is gone.

Summer in the Andes, Park Avenue Winter, 360 Park Avenue South, 212-951-7111

Take a vacation from winter with an instant voyage to Summer in the Andes. Pisco is the new gin, and the South American grape-based spirit informs this Park Avenue Winter cocktail with a gentle tinge of fruit, highlighted by an herbaceous wisp of allspice and vanilla. It's a drink designed to take you places -- and just think how much you'll save on airfare.